QUILT

List of tests performed:

- Clicked on a blank spot to go to the upload page.

- Upload page should store image in database.

- Upload page gets IP address and x/y coordinates when it is loaded.

- Index page should now load stored images from database.

- Index page on load initializes basic view, loading enough images to fit the page.

- Click on an image thumbnail to check that it takes you to a page with the actual size of the image.

- Click on the image flag button, image is flagged.

- Make a comment, comment is stored on image details page.

- Add a tag to an image, it is added.

- Image view page loads tags associated with image.

- Clicking on an existing tag takes to tag page.

- Tag page should load images with associated tag.

- Each image on tag page should load tags associated with that image.

- Try to upload a very large image and see if PIL resizes, image is resized.

- When scrolling on index page, more rows and columns get added.

- Clicking on sign up takes user to the sign up screen.

- Clicking the signup button after putting in the correct information allows the user to store their user information on our database.

- IP address is stored as a hidden field when a user posts a picture.

- IP address is stored as a hidden field when a user creates an account.

- User can click facebook signup button to signup with an account through facebook.

- Checking the "post anonymous" button while not logged in allows user to post anonymously.